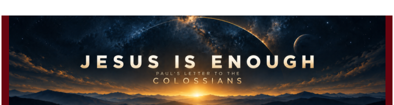
Seymour Street Methodist Church
Living for Jesus, Sharing His Love

THIS WEEK — Seymour Street



SERVICES
THIS SUNDAY - 13th SEPTEMBER

This Sunday there will be TWO Services at 10.00 am and 11.30 am.
These will both be led by David and both will include Holy Communion.
We will be starting a new series moving through the book of Colossians called 'Jesus is Enough'.
We will also be welcoming Ryan Harris to Seymour Street as he begins his placement with us as a student minister.

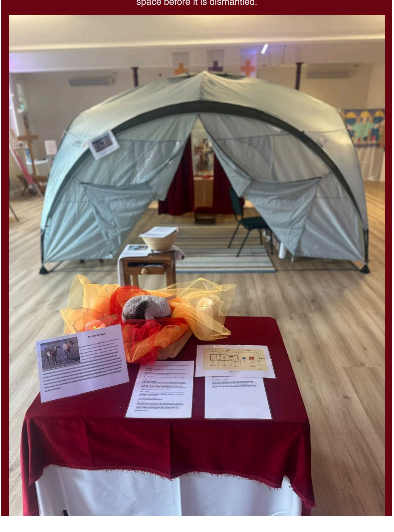
Creche and our children's and youth programmes will all be running

Prayer Ministry will be available between the services in the minister's room.
There will also be tea and coffee between the services (please see note below).

SPECIAL SERVICE IN TRINITY THIS EVENING
(Please see 'Global Week of Prayer' notice below.)

PRAYER ROOM OPEN ON SUNDAY
& TEA & COFFEE

We're very grateful to the team who prepared our Prayer Room for the Global Week of Prayer. They have created a wonderful space in our newly refurbished Minor Hall which has been a blessing to many from our own congregation and beyond this week.
The prayer room will be available to use THIS SUNDAY from 9.00am - 1.00pm.
Please take the opportunity to come early or stay after one of the services to spend time in the prayer space.
This week TEA & COFFEE will be served from the Minor Hall kitchen between the services from 11.00 - 11.20am which will also allow more people to visit the prayer space before it is dismantled.



GLOBAL WEEK OF PRAYER IN LISBURN

Remember that you can still sign up to pray in Lisburn City Church (Graham Gardens) up to 12 tonight (Friday), and in Christ Church up to 12 on Saturday night.
You can book in HERE
There will also be a corporate time of prayer and worship in each of these churches from 8.00-9.00pm on each of the respective days.
The week will close with a special celebration service from 7.00 - 8.30 pm this Sunday, 13th Sept, in Trinity Methodist.
Details of the programme for the whole week are available HERE
